Asemlaži 1969–2024

Stane Jagodič

Avtobiografija, asemlaž, 1982
Autobiography, assemblage, 1982

Zbirka asemlaž - objekt montaž priznanega slovenskega umetnika Staneta Jagodiča je v zadnjih petinpetdesetih letih doživelja kar šest selitev, medtem ko se je število eksponatov ne-prestano povečevalo. Danes je ta dragocena kolekcija shranjena v kletnih prostorih Rotonde, ki so v lasti podjetnika Mihe Ažmana. Depo hrani približno 300 del večjega formata, medtem ko je okoli 200 montaž manjšega formata nameščenih v umetnikovem stanovanju. Poleg asemlaž zbirka vključuje obsežen opus v različnih tehnikah, kot so risba, karikatura, ilustracija, grafika, olje in akril na platnu, akvarel, voščena kreda, tuš-pihanka, spraygram, fotomontaža in x-ray art montaža. Dopolnjujejo jo številne knjige, katalogi, vabila, priznanja ter publicistični prispevki, ki dokumentirajo umetnikovo angažirano in raziskovalno ustvarjanje ter njegovo zavzeto delovanje na področju kulture, tudi v okviru Mednarodne Grupe Junij, Trienala Aritas-satirA in performansov.

Umetnikovo delo je prejelo številna priznanja tako doma kot v tujini, o čemer pričajo tudi številna shranjena pisma svetovno znanih galeristov, kritikov, novinarjev in celo politikov. Glavni urednik južnokorejske revije Design Journal, Lee Sung Man, je ob koncu prejšnjega stoletja Jagodiča označil za ilustratorja dvajsetega stoletja.

Jagodičeve ustvarjanje reliefnih in obhodnih kolažev temelji na poetični kombinatoriki, s poudarkom na groteski, absurdru in parodoku, iz izrazitimi stilskimi oznakami metafizike, simbolizma, nadrealizma, konstruktivizma in optične umetnosti. Te značilnosti so prisotne tudi v drugih tehnikah, ki jih umetnik uporablja, kot so slikarstvo, risba, karikatura, grafika in fotomontaža.

Skladišče z zbirko predstavlja labirint fantazijskih vizualnih kreacij, ki izražajo angažiran krik proti moralnemu in duhovnemu propadu civilizacije. Jagodičevi asemlaži simbolizirajo negativne pojave sodobne družbe, kot so nebrzdana sla po kapitalu, razpad medčloveških odnosov, krute vojne in uničevanje narave. Te montaže imajo ne le simbolni pomen, temveč tudi tehnološko vrednost, saj ohranljajo spomin na različne predmete preteklosti, izdelane ročno ali strojno, iz kamna, kovine, lesa, plastike, stekla, kartona in platna.

Umetnikov najljubši rezervat je kovinska, linearno razgibana kletka in mrežasti rezervat kot simbol ujetosti, kar je od leta 1970 zaznamovalo večino njegovih asemlaž in fotografij. Pri montaži pogosto uporablja sakralne odlitke figur, predvsem Kristusovo razpelo, kot simbol duhovnega in telesnega mučeništva. Mnogočasno vključuje tudi notranje komponente računalnikov in drugih mehanizmov, saj ga zanima samo drobovje delovanja. Ker ga pri fotomontaži (x-ray art) ni zanimala samo zunanjana anatomija človeka, je kasneje tudi pri asemlažih pogosto koristil notranji, zelo razgiban ustroj računalnika in ostalih mehanizmov.

Vsebina Jagodičevih asemlaž simbolizira negativno delovanje človeštva v smislu agresivnosti, digitalne zasvojenosti, kibernetskega kriminala in ogroženosti otrok. Avtor ima poseben odnos do živali in praživali, kar se odraža v vizualnih basnih, saj izvira s podeželja. Leta 1979 je ilustriral učbenik Razvojni nauk, biologija za 8. razred osnovne šole (Mladinska knjiga 1970). Prikazuje agresivne, napadalne živali, ki simbolizirajo človekovo zlobno in sovražno vedenje, ter pohlevne živali z igrivim gibanjem, a žal tudi z mučeniško usodo.

Nemško podjetje Schleich mu je leta 2007 radodarno podarilo številne odlične odlitke živali in praživali, ki jih je umetnik vključil v svoje razgibane kompozicije. Med njegovimi asemlaži je tudi približno 20 mobilov na ročni pogon z različnim gibanjem. Prva gibljiva montaža z naslovom Zvon obljud je nastala leta 1969, istega leta pa tudi prva reliefna montaža z električno svetlobo, z naslovom NLP. Tehnika asemlaža mu je bila v veliko pomoč tudi pri številnih performansi. V celotni zbirki asemlaž je preko 200 motivov, ki niso bili nikdar razstavljeni ali objavljeni in so na ogled premierno.

Najpomembnejši sodelavci pri zahtevnejših objekt montažah so bili: Samo Zorec, Matej Kosmač, Željko Ulčnik, Jože Fajš, Ivan Debelak, Mirče Stojčevski; tudi kiparji: Janez Boljka, Jakov Brdar, Mirsad Begić in firme: Pasarstvo Žmuc, Livarstvo Mostar, Andotehna Ribnica, Steklarna Rogaška Slatina itd. Tudi fotodokumentaristi asemlažev: Marijan Pal, Matija Pavlovec, Oskar Dolenc, Tihomir Pinter, Slavko Ciglanečki, Greta Jagodič, Jan Jagodič itd.

Assemblages 1969-2024

Stane Jagodič

Ujeti nasmeh, montaža, 1972

Tinned Smile, montage, 1972

The collection of Stane Jagodič's assemblages has moved six times over the course of 55 years, and the number of exhibits has increased year by year. Today, the collection is deposited in the basement of the company Rotonda, whose owner is the entrepreneur Miha Ažman. Most of the large-format assemblages (around 300 motifs) are deposited in the newest basement space, while the smaller-format assemblages (around 200 motifs) are stored in the artist's apartment. There is also a large amount of material in various techniques: drawing - caricature-illustration, graphics, oil and acrylic on canvas, watercolor, wax chalk, ink blown on the paper, spraygram, photo montage, x-ray art montage, etc. There are also many books, catalogs, invitations, awards and publicity material. And a huge collection of letters in which world-renowned critics, gallerists, journalists and politicians paid a lot of attention to the artist's engaged and research work, and organizational work in the field of culture (International Junij Group, triennial Aritas - satirA, publications, performances, etc.).

At the end of the last century, the editor-in-chief of the South Korean magazine Design Journal, Lee Sung Man, called Jagodič the illustrator of the twentieth century. In non-aligned Yugoslavia, editors and some gallerists simply yearned for engaged satire, but later, in the independent Slovenia, interest gradually waned, which satisfied the long-standing opponents who denied his creation and pushed it into oblivion.

The creation of three-dimensional and relief collages took place in the spirit of poetic combinatorics, with an emphasis on the grotesque, absurd, paradox and stylistic features: metaphysics, symbolism, surrealism, constructivism and op art, which is also characteristic of other techniques: painting, drawing - caricature, graphics, photomontage, etc.

The warehouse presents a labyrinth of fantasy visual creations that symbolize an engaged cry against the derailed phenomena of our civilization. Civilizations that have lost their moral and spiritual compass are rampantly greedy for capital, breaking human relations, causing cruel wars and grossly destroying nature. Montages do not only have a confessional, symbolic meaning, in a technological sense they also preserve the memory of many objects of the past, hand or machine-made, in stone, metal, wood, plastic, glass, cardboard, canvas, etc.

His favorite prop is a metal, linearly articulated cage and netting prop as a symbol of entrapment, which has characterized most of his assemblages and photographs since the 1970s. In the assembly, he also used sacral casts of figures, especially the crucifix of Christ, as a symbol of torture, in a spiritual and physical sense.

In photomontage (x-ray art) he was not only interested in the external anatomy of a person, later he also often used the internal one, but also in very varied structure of the computer and other mechanisms, seen in his assemblages, too.

The content of the assemblages therefore symbolizes the negative functioning of homo sapiens in terms of aggressiveness, digital addiction, cybercrime and child endangerment. Also visual fables, because the author has a special relationship with animals as he comes from the countryside, and in 1979 he illustrated Developmental Teaching, Biology for the 8th grade of elementary school (Mladinska knjiga 1970). On one hand, there are aggressive, attacking animals, that symbolize the evil and hostile behavior of humans, and on the other hand there are tame animals with rather playful movements but, unfortunately, also with a martyr's fate.

In 2007, the German company Schleich generously presented him with a large number of excellent casts of animals and extinct animals, which he included in varied compositions in addition to the purchased figurines.

Among the numerous assemblages there are also around 20 hand-operated mobiles with different movements, particularly appealing to young people. The first moving montage entitled The Bell of Promises was created in 1969. In the same year appeared also the first relief montage with electric light, entitled UFO. The assemblage technique also benefited him for many performances.

In the entire collection of assemblages, there are over 200 motifs that have never been exhibited or published, and are now presented to a wider audience in the current warehouse, and can also be viewed by individuals in his home storage.

His relief and three dimensional assemblies were made by using one-second or several-hour glue, and in the techniques of metal screwing, welding and joining.

The most important collaborators in the more demanding building installations were: Samo Zorec, Matej Kosmač, Željko Ulčnik, Jože Fajs, Ivan Debelak, Mirče Stojčevski; also sculptors: Janez Boljka, Jakov Brdar, Mirsad Begić and companies: Pasarstvo Žmuc, Livarstvo Mostar, Andotehna Ribnica, Steklarna Rogaška Slatina, etc. Also photo-documentaries of assemblages: Marijan Pal, Matija Pavlovec, Oskar Karel Doleč, Tihomir Pinter, Slavko Ciglenečki, Greta Jagodič, Jan Jagodič, etc.
